

Leadership Development Report October 13, 2019

Thanks to some dynamite presentations at the DKG Conference in Des Moines last summer, I will have some information and activities to present in Ketchikan. While the training sessions have been traditionally geared toward incoming officers, I think that what I plan to share will be relevant for all members and I look forward to seeing many of my Alaska sisters in April.

Judy Ireton